

Address Supporting Organization

Seoul, Korea – August 2003

Since Shanghai!

- AC traditionally reports on its progress
 - Does this at RIR meetings
 - Also in open forum at ICANN meetings
 - ASO General Assembly Held in Santiago de Chile in April 2003

Major Changes to AC

- ICANN Reform
 - This is an ongoing activity
 - Soon to be done
 - Nominations Committee
- Formalization of AC Processes
- New faces on the Address Council

ASO Address Council

- Address Council
 - 3 representatives per RIR region
 - Representatives do not represent RIRs directly
- AC nominees
 - Not necessarily an RIR member
 - All can participate in elections
 - . . . Not limited to RIR members
- The role of the AC will be changing
 - To meet new challenges
 - To adapt to the new ICANN structure

ASO Address Council

♪ AC is working with the RIRs on ICANN reform process discussions

- Stand ready to facilitate/work with the RIRs and ERC in negotiation for a new MoU in the reform environment
- RIRs have asked for formal input
- AC has met informally with ICANN ERC
- Two AC members' "principles" document

Survey on Reform

- ASO AC Conducted a survey among its member on reform and the relationship between the RIRs and ICANN
- The results are from a very small, but representative part of the community
- Here is a sample of those results

Reform Survey Part 1

- 100% of those responding said that the reform should continue to be an ASO
- When asked about the role of the ASO
 - 100% said it would elect ICANN BoD
 - 100% said it would elect ICANN NomCom
 - 100% said it should advise ICANN on global addressing issues
 - 100% said it should coordinate global addressing policy development

Reform Survey Part 2

- Not much agreement on the size of ASO
 - 50% said not significant issue
- 87% said that RIR community should elect either two or three ASO members
- 67% said that RIR Boards should elect one member to the ASO
- 10% said that the ICANN NomCom should have a role

Reform Survey Part 3

- Agreed to electronic voting
- Agreed to the concept of temporary observers

Nomination Committee

- ICANN has a Nominations Committee
 - Nominates people to the ICANN BoD
- AC is responsible for one delegate
- Election took place in February 2003
- Please to have German Valdez
 - Started work on NomCom immediately
